

Elisabeth Lehmann

Elisabeth Lehmann
lic. iur., attorney/lawyer
Mediator SDM / SAV
Collaborative Lawyer CLP

Born in 1962
Mother of two grown-up children
Languages: German, English,
French, Italian

lisa.lehmann@advobasel.ch

Training/Career

- Studied law at the University of Bern
- Internships working for law firms, courts and public administrations
- Admission to the bar in 1990
- Human resources manager in an international communications company
- Continuous training in psychology at the University of California, Berkeley, USA, specialising in developmental psychology and systemic therapy, 1992 to 1994
- Legal adviser at the Tenants' Association of Basel
- Mediation training at the Institute for Systemic Development and Training in Zurich (IEF), 1998 to 2000
- Training in collaborative lawyer procedures (CLP), 2013
- Training 'child in focus', 2015
- Continuous training in couple therapy at 'Institut für ökologisch-systemische Therapie, Zürich, 2019/2020
- Self-employed attorney/lawyer and mediator in Basel since 2000

Main areas of activity

- Mediation
- Family law
- Marriage and cohabitation law
- Separation and divorce law
- Child and adult protection law
- Inheritance law
- Tenancy law
- Labour law

Other activities

- Member of the certification committee of the Swiss umbrella organization for mediation, SDM, 2009-2019
- Member of the interdisciplinary working group 'Netzwerk Kinder', since 2010